

UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE
GLOBAL INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY ACADEMY

Dear Dr. Hua Lin (Helen) Sun:

On behalf of the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), an agency of the Department of Commerce (DOC), I am writing to invite you to speak at our upcoming Global Intellectual Property Academy (GIPA) "Seminar on Intellectual Property Issues in China for U.S. Government Officials." Our annual program is directed at federal, state and local government officials who work on intellectual property issues related to China.

Specifically, we would welcome you as a key-note speaker on your recently-published book, "Internet Policy in China: A Field Study of Internet Cafes." We understand that your book discusses how the Internet has been used by Chinese government and citizens and the implications of China Internet policies and regulations. We believe that this study would better inform our government work in intellectual property issues in China.

We would like for you to speak on Thursday afternoon, July 29, 2010, from 1:45 - 2:45. Our office is able to handle your expenses associated with travel to our program; however, as a government agency, we are unable to extend an honorarium. Ms. Jamie Day of our office will work with you on the arrangements. We look forward to your participation in this program.

Sincerely,

Susan Anthony
